

Jeffrey is highly autistic and is able to communicate only through a keyboard where his mother touches his hand or should to break the connection so he can go on to the next thought. He and his mother and father are missionaries in Japan. A big part of their ministry is to developmentally disabled. The Lord has allowed them to continue to minister during this time of distancing for corona virus prevention

LINK to Jeffrey's Blog Do Not Fear!